LIST OF EVENTS:

We are planning a long weekend of events and festivities to mark Her Majesty's 70 years on the throne.

Thursday 2nd June

- Lighting a beacon on Windmill Hill at 9.45pm. The public are respectfully asked to view this from vantage points in the village as it will be sited on private land alongside crops and livestock.
- Our grateful thanks to the Marquess of Northampton and the Ridgway family.

- Children's Jubilee inspired art displayed in St Mary's church throughout the weekend.
- Village trail/treasure hunt around the village all weekend – see route sheets in the village shop, post office and Record.
- WI Jubilee inspired crafts display.

Friday 3rd June

- Tysoe Lunch Club, special Jubilee Lunch for senior citizens in the Village Hall.
- An opportunity to see St Mary's restoration project up close with planned visits up the church tower, plus a photographic display about the restoration project.
- While the Making of Tysoe Team will show their survey findings revealing details about the tower's history. Refreshments provided.
- Tysoe Wildlife will be running wildlife craft activities, together with a mini Nature Trail in the churchyard.

Saturday 4th June

- Windmill Run takes place from the Recreation Ground in the morning.
- From 1.00pm onwards – stage acts including: Holly Perkins, Rose Farren, Grace Schofield, Jazz 59 Quintet and TADA on the recreation ground. Tea and cakes provided by Tysoe WI, hot food provided by Jenny Brown and a bar provided by Tysoe Social Club.
- Merribells hand-bell ringing in the tea tent
- Novelty football throughout the afternoon.

- Free entry to all. Residents encouraged to come in fancy dress or at least Red, White & Blue. Bring your own picnic and enjoy the entertainment. Have your photo taken with Her Majesty
- Free Jubilee gift for all Tysoe children up to 15 years old.

GET INVOLVED!

Thursday to Sunday
celebrations

Here are some of the many ways you can get involved in celebrating The Queen's milestone year.

We want these events to be remembered as a celebration of the Queen's wonderful life
of service to the nation.

LIST OF EVENTS:

Sunday 5th June

- A combined Jubilee and Pentecost service will take place at St Mary's Church at Ilam to celebrate the Queen's reign.
- Organise your own street party, celebrate the Jubilee in style. It's the party that's right up your street, and everyone's invited, so let's take to our streets and gardens to have fun and get to know one another a little better.

Take photos and upload them to #TysoeJubileephotos. Let's make it a celebration to remember.

These events are open to anyone who wants to celebrate the Queen's Platinum Jubilee in Tysoe.
